MAY WEBINAR:

Capturing Available Rebates on Current & Past Energy Efficiency Projects

Join us TODAY at noon for our next webinar, Capturing Available Rebates on Current & Past Energy Efficiency Projects, sponsored by CPower. VAEEC local government members from around the state will share how they took advantage of rebates for energy efficiency projects, including lighting, HVAC, new LEED building, and renovations. They'll guide you on how to take advantage of these rebates as well.

Our speakers are:

- Kimberlee Dobbins and Lori Herrick Borden, City of Virginia Beach
- Brian Gorham, Prince William County Public Schools
- Leigh Anne Ratliff, CPower

Spring Forum Recap

Thanks to everyone who came to the Spring 2019 Forum. Over 100 energy efficiency professionals from across the Commonwealth attended, making it one of our most successful spring events to date. You can read more about the Forum on our blog, and check out our photos at our press room.

We want to extend one last, huge thank you to our generous sponsors, too. The Spring Forum never would have been possible without their support.

Member Success Stories

Our members shared a lot of exciting news and advancements at the Spring Forum! Here's a sneak peek at our new and improved Member Success Stories page. Make sure to check it out and discover all the great things happening in the industry.

In January, Think Little launched a sister company, Comparetto Comfort Solutions, finally enabling quality installations of their high performance HVAC designs.

"Now we can deliver really efficient systems that use about 40% less energy and in some cases, cost less."

SCC Approves All of Dominion's Demand Response Programs

On May 2, the SCC approved all 10 of Dominion's proposed energy efficiency programs, which will fulfill part of Dominion's commitment to energy efficiency under the Grid Transformation and Security Act. This is the first time ever that the SCC has approved Dominion's programs without changes to the proposed timeline or budget.
