

TOP 2022 ACCOMPLISHMENTS

1

VIRGINIA RANKED #20 ON THE ACEEE STATE ENERGY EFFICIENCY SCORECARD

Up from #25 in 2020, Virginia was cited as a regional leader in the Southeast for the Virginia Clean Economy Act and recent work to expand energy efficiency.

$227M FOR LOW-INCOME COMMUNITIES

In the first 18 months of Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative carbon auctions, $30M went to making existing homes more energy efficient and $109M went to new construction rehabilitation.

2

3

ENERGY EFFICIENCY LEGISLATION

Working with our ESCo members and Virginia Energy, we successfully facilitated the passage of legislation that removed the roof exemption for Energy Performance Contracting.

STATEWIDE C-PACE PROGRAM

We worked alongside Virginia Energy and the Virginia PACE Authority to develop and launch the statewide Commercial Property Assessed Clean Energy (C-PACE) program.

4

5

NEW ENERGY EFFICIENCY RESOURCES

We expanded our resources by creating three WDR case studies, an introduction to EE webpage and factsheet, two RGGI webpages, and co-produced three RGGI videos.

VAEEC EVENTS

Throughout the year, the VAEEC hosted two forums, two roundtable discussions, two webinars, and one awards ceremony. For the fourth year, we co-hosted the VA Clean Energy Summit.

6

7

TWO WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT PROPOSALS

We developed two workforce development proposals in order to establish a larger pipeline for energy efficiency career training and advancement that meets the needs of EE employers.

INTERVENED IN DOMINION'S DSM FILING

Once again, we formally intervened in Dominion Energy's Demand Side Management filing before the SCC.

8

9

MET WITH DECISION MAKERS

We held meetings with legislators and decision makers, including the Dep. Sec. of Commerce & Trade, the VA Dept. of Energy and Dept. of Housing & Community Development, and state delegates and senators, to discuss the importance of EE.

NEW STRATEGIC PLAN

Working with our committees and Board of Directors, we created our next, three year strategic plan that will guide the organization and our work.
